

Devil's Slide Field Trip for Students and Professionals April 10, 2016

Join wildlife biologists and local experts Patrick Kobernus and Justin Windsor for a look at the wildlife and lore of infamous Devil's Slide. We'll watch for the slide's famous peregrines, murrens, and California red-legged frogs while hiking along the scenic bluffs of Montara Mountain.

RSVP: Please email Ivan Parr at ivan.parr@aecom.com by April 8.

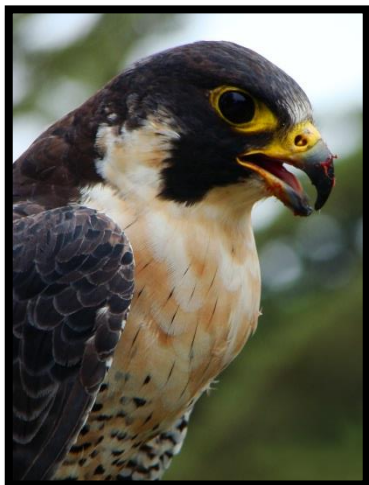

When: 8:30 AM to 12:00 PM

Where: Meet in front of Devil's Slide Taproom @ 5560 Pacific Coast Hwy, Pacifica, CA 94044.

Limit: 15 (first come first serve); only TWS members and students

Cost: Free!

Plan

- 8:30: Meet and travel
- 9:00-10:00: Observe the Common Murre colony and Peregrine Falcons
- 10:00-10:20: Travel to the Gray Whale Cove Trailhead
- 10:20-11:30: 2-mile moderate hike, looking for local wildlife
- 11:30-12:00: Visit the red-legged frog pond at the Charthouse Mitigation Site
- 12:00: Head back to Pacifica for (optional) lunch @ Devil's Slide Taproom.

What to Bring: Rain-gear, hiking shoes, layers, water, snacks, binoculars, camera, sun protection, and wind protection.